DIGITAL PROJECT EXAMPLE

Chat-GPT Lite (<https://github.com/rifqifarhansyah/ChatGPT-Lite>)

- This project is associated with Algorithm Strategy course of STEI, ITB.
- In this program, we can ask the ChatBot some question and he will give us the answer depends on String Matching and Regex process behind it. The features that have been implemented are calculator, add/delete question, day predictor, etc.
- I have contributed to design and implement user interface from the website, arrange the report, and connect the UI with some related functional method or procedure.

Batik Pattern Classification (<https://github.com/rifqifarhansyah/Batik-Pattern-Classification>)

- This project is associated with Discrete Mathematics course of STEI, ITB.
- In this program, I made a program to analyze the pattern from input image and then compare them with the training image.
- I utilize global feature extraction to take the pattern, texture, and colour allocation from every batik picture. The database of this program have been specified by me, about 80 pictures. In this program, I add 4 database of indonesian batik pattern (parang, nitik, ceplok, lereng).

EigenFace Recognition with Python GUI (<https://github.com/rifqifarhansyah/EigenFace-Recognition>)

- This project is associated with Geometry and Linear Algebra course of STEI, ITB.
- In this program, we can upload our photo or use the webcam to take a realtime photos.
- The result of comparison between the uploaded photo with the eigen face database.
- I have contributed to make an User Interface with Python GUI. The libraries that I used to construct this project are CustomTkinter (version 4.6.3), PIL (version 8.4.0), Tkinter (version 8.6), and FPDF (version 1.7.2).
